Azuma Farm, Koiwai - Brand experience + Cultural positioning

Alejandro M. Lopez (AML) is a plein air painter whose practice is built entirely around immersion in the natural world. His upcoming solo exhibition "One With Nature" opens December 4th at GYRE Gallery, Omotesando - one of Tokyo's most culturally significant spaces - running through January 8.

We are proposing a short artist residency at Azuma Farm Koiwai: a stay of several days during which Alejandro would paint en plein air across the farm's landscapes, responding directly to the land in its seasons.

The works created at Koiwai could become part of the exhibition narrative - with the property credited as the origin point of that body of work, told through paintings, film, and the story of the stay itself.

GYRE
One of Omotesando's destination retail and community spaces serves as a high end retail and progressive voice in the Japan Retail scene, Illustrating how "Shopping is connected to the complex web of the natural world."

As a result GYRE's gallery is the perfect place to house Alejandro's, "One With Nature" December 2026 exhibition.

With annual visitor numbers ranging between 190,000 and 200,000, with December being the highest volume of traffic during the year.

Young, 25-35 male and female shoppers both Japanese and inbound with expendable income make up the vibrant traffic both shopping and restaurant activity.
